

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Kailash CAFE: Sharing knowledge of a sacred landscape

The Kailash Consortium of Academics and Researchers for Experience-sharing

The Kailash Consortium of Academics and researchers For Experience-sharing (CAFE) is a digital platform that brings together researchers working across a variety of disciplines within the Kailash Sacred Landscape.

The Kailash CAFE invites abstracts for its first edition to be held in April 2021.

Participation in the event is free. All presenters are required to register for the event in order to deliver oral or poster presentations.

Guidelines for authors

Scope

The abstract must be based on original research conducted in the Kailash Sacred Landscape – covering all or part of Pulan County, Tibet Autonomous Region of China; Pithoragarh District of Uttarakhand State, India; and Baitadi, Bajhang, Darchula and Humla districts of Nepal. Research can focus on any of the following thematic areas:

- Biodiversity
- Ecosystem services
- Landscape approach
- Livelihoods
- Technology and innovation
- Cultural heritage
- Gender
- Climate change
